Oviatt Library Valuation Study July 2008

The mission of the Oviatt Library at California State University, Northridge is to meet the information needs of our academic community; to provide effective, caring, and responsive service; to collaborate with faculty in the education of our students; to develop the information competence skills of our students; and to foster a love of reading and learning.

If our users had to purchase these resources and services, in FY 2006/07, they would have paid at least......$31,977,586

The breakdown is as follows:

 18,142 magazines, journals, and newspapers were used in the Library, which would have cost users	•	253,563 books were borrowed, which would have cost users	$5,768,558
 18,142 magazines, journals, and newspapers were used in the Library, which would have cost users	•	17,334 DVDs and videos were borrowed, which would have cost users	$114,404
 41,724 uses of 18,700 pages in the e-reserves system, if photocopied, would have cost users	•	107,086 books were used in the Library, which would have cost users	$43,905
 458,801 full-text articles were downloaded from just one of over 120 databases, which would have cost users	•	18,142 magazines, journals, and newspapers were used in the Library, which would have cost users	$487,725
 71,030 uses of just one of our electronic book services would have cost users	•	41,724 uses of 18,700 pages in the e-reserves system, if photocopied, would have cost users	$87,620
 64,003 reference questions were answered at Library service points, which would have cost users $307 5,589 research consultations provided by librarians would have cost users $195 25,673 students attended library and information competence instruction sessions, which would have cost users $898 373,388 logins of Library workstations would have cost users $2,800 10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users $197 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users $365 	•	458,801 full-text articles were downloaded from just one of over 120 databases, which would have cost users	$20,646,045
 5,589 research consultations provided by librarians would have cost users 25,673 students attended library and information competence instruction sessions, which would have cost users 373,388 logins of Library workstations would have cost users 10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users $365 	•	71,030 uses of just one of our electronic book services would have cost users	$34,805
 25,673 students attended library and information competence instruction sessions, which would have cost users 373,388 logins of Library workstations would have cost users 10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users $365 	•	64,003 reference questions were answered at Library service points, which would have cost users	$307,210
 373,388 logins of Library workstations would have cost users 10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users $365 	•	5,589 research consultations provided by librarians would have cost users	$195,615
 10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users $365 	•	25,673 students attended library and information competence instruction sessions, which would have cost users	$898,555
• 27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users	•	373,388 logins of Library workstations would have cost users	$2,800,410
	•	10,420 laptops were borrowed, which would have cost users	$197,980
• 168 uses of the Library Presentation Room were made by non-library groups, which would have cost users $20	•	27,273 inter library borrowing and lending requests would have cost users	$365,185
Too uses of the Elotary Tresentation Room were made by non-notary groups, which would have cost users	•	168 uses of the Library Presentation Room were made by non-library groups, which would have cost users	$29,568