

REVEALING BORDERLAND IDENTITIES

diaspora, memory, home, and art

Jessica Arana May 18, 2014

PLEASE JOIN ME FOR A RECEPTION CELEBRATING

REVEALING BORDERLAND IDENTITIES: DIASPORA, MEMORY, HOME, AND ART

An installation of photographs and embroidered drawings

The MA Thesis Exhibition of Jessica Arana in The Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies, Master of Arts in Humanities

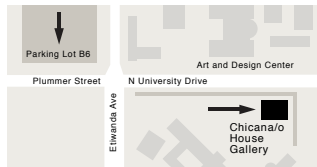

SUNDAY, MAY 18, 2014

12noon – 3pm / 1pm Presentation

The Chicana/o House Gallery, California State University, Northridge Plummer St. between Etiwanda Ave. and E. University Drive in Northridge, CA 91330 (Enter on Reseda Blvd.) $6 parking in lot B6

DJ Geoffrey the Butler will be spinning eclectic Borderland música. Drinks and sweets will be served.

Gallery hours are by appointment only through May 31, 2014.
Please contact
jessicaarana@gmail.com
for more information.
jessicaarana.com

California State University
Northridge

The Department of Chicana/o Studies
Jerome Richfield Hall 148
18111 Nordhoff Street
Northridge, CA 91330