The Oviatt Library and Academic Affairs present

April 3, 2013, 9:30 AM - 4:00 PM
Oviatt Library -- Jack & Florence Ferman Presentation Room

Featured Speakers:
- Mark Stover, Dean, Oviatt Library, California State University, Northridge
  Opening Remarks
- Dianne Harrison, President, California State University, Northridge
  Introduction
- Marshall Breeding, Independent Consultant/Author
  Overview of technological <r>evolution and information, impact on the production, distribution, and consumption of knowledge
- Stephen Abram, Managing Principal, Lighthouse Partners/Dysart & Jones
  New models of publication, content creation, distribution, consumption
- Harry Hellenbrand, Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs, California State University, Northridge
  Remarks
- Jeff Gold, Director, Academic Technology Development, California State University, Office of the Chancellor
  CSU Initiatives in educational technology and digital learning
- Deon Zell, Senior Director, Academic Technology, California State University, Northridge
  New trends in education: digital tools, technology, systems
- Chrysanne Lowe, Vice President, Global Marketing Communications, Elsevier
  The future: explorations on new ways for engaging content and the future of libraries

Lunch included -- RSVP by March 28, 2013 to mickey.martinez@csun.edu